

PUPIL PARABLE COMPETITION

First Prize €25 iTunes or Easons voucher.
Second Prize €15 iTunes or Easons voucher.
Closing date; 6pm, Fri 24th May, 2013.

Winners will be announced the week of 27th May, 2013.

This is a competition where students are asked to compose their own parable, inspired by one of ten random photographs, and which include one/some of the following characteristics of the Kingdom of God;

1. How sinners and outcasts (outsiders) are to be treated in the Kingdom;
2. How people in the Kingdom should love their neighbour;
3. How there should be a special place for the poor;
4. How women should be treated;
5. How people must love and forgive their enemies.

The parable must begin with; "The Kingdom of God is like... " and can make whatever reference to the picture as the student sees fit. Check out the website www.jcreled.weebly.com for the ten photographs the students can choose from.

All entries must be sent via email to jcreled@gmail.com entitled 'Pupil Parable Competition' and submitted in a Word Document format. There is no restriction on the length of the parable. Students must state their name on all entries, state whether they would prefer to win the iTunes or the Easons voucher and indicate their permission to allow their work to be displayed on this site for others to enjoy.
